Research shows that the best educational outcomes for children are achieved when parents are engaged in their child’s learning.

Young Early Childhood Services Group (The YES Group) would like to invite parents of children aged 1 through to 7 to an information evening.

When? Thursday 13th August 2015
Time? 7.00pm to 9.00pm
Where? Young Services Club- Flamingo room

Guest Speaker Sara Stockman, Jose Webber and our Panel which includes representatives from
- Community Health
- Speech Therapy
- Local schools
- Parents
- Early childhood Education & Care

Will provide information about:
- The social and emotional aspects of starting school
- How to develop resilience
- Where and how to access support before and during the first years of school.

Our panel of experts will also answer any questions you may have.

Our guest speakers, Sara Stockman will speak on ways to promote social and emotional competence in children and ideas to reduce challenging behaviours in children and Jose Webber a local Occupational Therapist will speak on ways to encourage motor development including gross and fine motor skills.

There will be:
Free admission, a light supper provided, and information packs available for families attending !!!

Contact: Your local School or Early Childhood Centre if you would like more information about this night or if you would like to provide questions to be asked of the panel.